

Brooke Douglas

Curriculum Vitae

1601 Summerbrook Circle • Athens, Ga 30606 • (678)749-5471 • Brookedouglas@gmail.com

EDUCATION

The University of Georgia, Athens, GA
PhD Candidate, Health Promotion and Behavior

Estimated graduation date: May 2020

The University of Georgia, Athens, GA
Master of Public Health, Health Promotion and Behavior

May 2016

Spelman College, Atlanta, GA
Bachelor of Arts, Comparative Women's Studies/Women's Health Concentration

May 2014

LICENSURE AND CERTIFICATION

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Principles of Prevention Training Certificate (2015)
National Institute of Health (NIH) Plain Language Training Certificate (2014)

HONORS & AWARDS

Delta Omega National Honor Society in Public Health (2016 – Present)
TRIOTA National Women's Studies Honor Society (2013 – Present)
Spelman College Project Impact Community Service Award Recipient (2013)
The National Society of Leadership and Success (2012 – Present)
George and Pearl Strickland Scholar (2012 – 2014)
HOPE Scholar (2010 – 2014)

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Independent Study, University of Georgia

Under the supervision of Dr. Pamela Orpinas

- Focused on trends in sexual victimization among U.S. high school students from 1999-2011
- Presented finding to the University of Georgia's College of Public Health

Spring 2016

Independent Study, University of Georgia

Under the supervision of Dr. Pamela Orpinas

- Focused on traditional practices that harm women and girls, gender inequalities, and gender discrimination
- Presented findings to the University of Georgia's Foundations of Injury Prevention course

Summer 2015

Independent Study, Spelman College

Under the supervision of Dr. Beverly Guy-Sheftall

- Focused on myths and stereotypes of aging women, sexuality and aging, and sexuality in heterosexual aging women
- Synthesized findings into 15-page final research paper: Misconceptions of Sex in Heterosexual Aging Women

Spring 2014

Spelman Independent Scholars (SIS) Program (Spelman College, Atlanta, GA), Program Participant

2013–2014

- Conducted qualitative interdisciplinary research regarding the intersectionality of race, gender, age, and socioeconomic status for the Spelman Independent Scholars (SIS) Oral History Project
- Interviewed two African American women of the south referred to as Women of Wisdom (WOW) for the SIS Oral History Project
- Interviewed African American women elders in Newtown, Georgia impacted by environmental racism
- Interviewed the 9th president Spelman College and the 2012-2013 William and Camille Hanks Cosby Chair in the College's Humanities
- Presented SIS research to Spelman College community
- Created a survey focused on age-literacy and surveyed the Spelman College community
- Acquired knowledge about oral history
- Developed transcribing, indexing, editing and archiving skills

Spelman Independent Scholars Travel Research (New Providence, Bahamas), Program Participant

- Conducted research for the Oral History Project in New Providence, Commonwealth of the Bahamas with women activists involved in the Bahamas women's suffrage movement and Haitian and Bahamian elders
- Conducted research on women and violence in the Bahamas at the college of Bahamas
- Presented research to the College of Bahamas Oral History Project "From Dat Time" in Nassau, Bahamas
- Established relationships with Bahamian and Haitian girls who were stewards of the Indaba Project

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Georgia Graduate Teaching Assistant, Instructor of Record

August 2015 – May 2016

- Primary instructor for Foundation of Injury Prevention course in the UGA Health Promotion and Behavior Department
- Develop teaching materials, such as syllabi, PowerPoint lectures, answer keys, and supplementary notes
- Design online classes and activities
- Prepare, proctor, and grade examinations
- Evaluate student's performance, provide feedback, and assign grades for 27 undergraduate health promotion students

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Futures Without Violence Campus Leadership Fellowship Program, Campus Leader

August 2015 – Present

- Establish and implement an organized plan for the University of Georgia to address dating and domestic violence, reproductive coercion, sexual violence and sexual assault through policy, curricula and community engagement
- Collaborate with the Relationship and Sexual Violence Prevention (RSVP) Office at the University Health Center
- Implement the One Love Escalation Curriculum on the University of Georgia's campus with RSVP
- Reviewing and evaluating RSVP's Thumbs up/Thumbs Down Consent Program in collaboration with the University of Georgia's Equal Opportunity Office
- Assist with development and implementation April's Sexual Assault Awareness Month
- Ensure that resources are known and available at Student Health Centers and Women's Centers
- Build participation for FUTURES programs such as the RESPECT Challenge and Mudderella
- Write blog posts and web/social media content to raise awareness of issues of campus sexual violence

UGA College of Public Health, Office of the Dean for Academic Affairs, Graduate Assistant

2014 – 2015

- Provided professional support to the UGA MPH/DrPH Program and the MPH/DrPH Admissions Coordinators
- Assisted with the coordination, promotion, and support of the College of Public Health events and programs such as recruitment fairs, networking events, career workshops, and public health forums
- Performed administrative tasks such as data entry and analysis, web site development, collating marketing materials and presentations
- Created event flyers, programs, and online surveys
- Assisted with grading 70 undergraduate student exams and updating student grades

Bright Horizons (Childcare Center, Atlanta GA), Substitute Teacher

2014 – 2015

- Planned and implemented developmentally appropriate curriculum that provided a balance of activities to meet children's developmental, physical, social, and emotional needs
- Established and maintained positive relationships with families through regular communication regarding children's development and care through documentation and display, journaling, and portfolios
- Provided care for infants and toddlers including changing, feeding, and comforting

DeKalb County Board of Health, Office of Injury Prevention, Health Equity Internship, Intern

Summer 2013

Safe Kids DeKalb Intern

- Conducted a site visit at the Safe Kids Cobb County location where I served as a Safe Kids educator on Water Safety at their annual Back to School Safety event
- Presented Safe Kids of DeKalb community updates at the Live Healthy DeKalb Coalition meetings
- Created articles for the DeKalb County Board of Health e-newsletter on water safety and pedestrian safety
- Represented the DeKalb County Board of Health Office at the annual Health and Wellness Summit and the annual WIC community outreach event
- Developed a Safe Kids logic model

Safe Routes to School (SRTS) Program Intern

- Developed an executive summary of Safe Routes to School DeKalb for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
- Established relationships with Georgia's Metro Atlanta Safe Routes to School coordinators
- Created a one-page profile sheet that will be used for future follow up calls regarding Safe Routes to School programs
- Developed a SRTS assessment survey for schools within the DeKalb County School District
- Created a SRTS article for the DeKalb County Board of Health e-newsletter which focused on pedestrian and bicycle safety.
- Attended Live Healthy DeKalb Coalition meetings as the SRTS DeKalb representative and gave frequent updates on the Health Assessment and Promotion's efforts for Safe Routes to School DeKalb
- Attended webinars and conference calls for SRTS and pedestrian safety.
- Developed a Safe Routes to School logic model

Coretta Scott King Young Women's Leadership Academy (Atlanta, GA), AmeriCorps Member

2012 – 2013

- Tutored middle school aged females in Mathematics
- Developed student's numeracy skills at or above grade level

Kumon of Mableton (Mableton, GA), Educational Assistant

2012 – 2013

- Educated pre-school and kindergarten students to become self-learners, self-reliant, and confident in learning new concepts in mathematics and reading comprehension
- Performed administrative duties for the Kumon Instructor

The Georgia Institute of Technology CEISMC Program, Mentor/Tutor

2011 – 2012

The New Schools at Carver High School (Atlanta, GA)

- Provided academic support to 5 high school students in the areas of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics.
- Assisted with SAT and ACT preparation

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

The Woman I Choose to Be Incorporated, Co-Founder (2013 – Present)

South Cobb High School Young Women's Conference, Middle School Coordinator (2010 – Present)

UGA Institute of Gerontology Student Group, Member (2014 – Present)

The University of Georgia Graduate and Professional Scholars, Member (2014–2016)

UGA Public Health Association, Member (2014 – Present)

GlobeMed at Spelman College, Director of Community Building (2013 – 2014)

NAACP Cobb County Branch, Active Member (2010 – Present)

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- Project Open Hand – assist with meal packaging and meal delivery to elders and clients living with HIV/AIDS, breast cancer, and other serious illnesses (2013 – Present)
- Atlanta Habitat for Humanity – volunteer on construction sites to help build affordable homes (2011 – Present) for working families in the city of Atlanta and Fulton County
- Hands on Atlanta – tutored local elementary students in Mathematics (2011 – Present)
- Books for Africa – sort and pack books according to category and age level (2011 – Present)
- Georgia AmeriCorps – volunteered with Clarkston Community Center to inform immigrant and refugee families about using supplement income for the local farmers' market (2012 – 2013)