MY PODCAST 2ND&SHORT

- I am a co-host of a sports podcast called 2nd & Short. We have been growing consistently as we have released a new episode every Wednesday and Friday since November of 2022. We have also recorded other content aside from our regular podcasts, such as the street interview episode the night the Bulldogs went back-to-back and TikTok/YouTube Shorts clips. I record the Friday episodes with my co-host where we talk about various sports leagues. These leagues range from the NFL to the MLB to the Champions League to the Premier League and anything else we want to talk about in the realm of sports.
