Title ("Bestiary ABC's)

Adventures awaits for little heroes,

Bound to find all sorts of magical creatures.

Chimeras roar with their lion head,

Dragons keep their hoards in forgotten castles.

Elementals dance and play in the fire and the water with

Fairies that play tricks on those who stray too far.

Giants toil and tumble on great mountains where

Harpies swoop and play on cliffs.

Invisible creatures creep in the dark, playing

Jokes and tricks on people like you.

Kelpies stay close to the water —

Lakes and rivers are their favorite place to roam.

Manticores swoop in clear skies, entertainment for Nagas on sunny rocks.

Oni try to sneak up on little boys and girls, but the Phoenix keeps them away at night.

Quests can be hard work for adventurers,

Revenants are what happens when things go wrong.

Skeletons dance with their jangly bones, waking up

Trolls from their long winter naps.

Unicorns are a special sight for only the purest of hearts.

Vampires in their crypts like to wait until it's dark.

Will-o'-wisps twinkle in the night
marshes, guiding you home.

Creatures exist in every little corner, in every little space.

Like Yetis in their cozy mountain homes, ready to go to sleep to have another day of fun.

And Zână waiting in the woods to watch over your next adventure.
